HEAT STOPS WORK

District Employees Sent Home at 3 in Afternoon.

RUDOLPH SETS A PRECEDENT

Declares Men Should Not Be Made to Suffer and that District Will Not Lose, Because They Will Be Better Fitted to Work Next Day, After Cooling Rest.

All precedents went by the board in the District Building when the entire force of workers was dismissed at 3 o'clock yesterday by order of Commissioner Rudolph, so that they would not suffer unduly from the heat.

According to the veterans, this is the first time that such a thing has happened in years.

Makes Personal Investigation.
About noon Commissioner Rudolph took a trip over the building to see how things were running, and found that the clerks were suffering greatly from the heat.

The idea occurred to him that it might be a good thing to see if something could not be done to mitigate the effect of the warmth, and he proposed to the other two members of the board to allow all the employees to leave at 3 o'clock. This was readily agreed to, and the building was devoid of life shortly after that hour.

Thinks Act Investment.

Commissioner Rudolph said: "I thought that it was about the only thing to do under the circumstances. I saw how the people were suffering. 'I think that it is for the good of the work done in the building that they be allowed this extra time, and I would not think for a minute of having them make it up. They can do better work next day after a cooling rest.'"

FORT MYER INQUIRY ENDS.

Soldiers Who Threatened to Lynch Negro to Hear Fate.

Capt. T. M. Horn, acting commandant of Fort Meyer, has completed his report on the attempted assault by a company of soldiers of the Third Field Artillery upon the Alexandria County jail early Friday morning in an attempt to lynch Robert Jackson, the negro who was accused of seriously wounding Frank D. Scott, an artilleryman and telegraph operator at the post.

The report, with what recommendations it contains regarding punishment, will go to the Department of the East, Governors Island, N. Y.

Unless Capt. Horn has discovered a ringleader, or any persons who conceived the idea beforehand, it is considered unlikely that there will be a court-martial.

The trial of the negroes accused of rioting on the Falls Church car, in the course of which Scott was stabbed on the night of the Reno fight, will begin in the Alexandria County courthouse this morning. The cases will be conducted by Commonwealth Attorney Cranford Markey. Scott, who is at the Fort Myer Hospital, will recover.

AN ENJOYABLE OUTING.

Employees of a Popular Firm Entertained in Splendid Style.

William Hahn & Co. recently entertained Hahn's Progress Club at an enjoyable outing and field day on Annapolis Island.

This Progress Club is composed of the members of the firm and all the employees of Hahn's three stores. Its objects are strictly practical—the betterment of store service, mutual welfare, and such things—but on this occasion business was laid aside and a good time enjoyed by all.

There was an exciting baseball game between picked nines, in which the Rite Forms defeated the Bend Bessies by a 3 to 0 score.

There were also races of all kinds—100-yard dashes, egg races, potato races, and, finally, a relay race, in which the Tri-Wearers, Washington Belles, Black Ravens, and Corkers finished in the order named.

About fifty members of the club attended the outing, which was managed by the following committees: Athletics, Oeler, Reese, Hunter, Edwin Hahn, and Ledman; entertainment, Vogelsberger, Felsner, Blubaker, Greenwell, Long, Braunstein, and Harry Hahn.

The officers of the club are: President, Morris Hahn; vice president, John L. Walter; secretary, A. Stern.

DAUGHTER FILES CAVET.

Elizabeth Stock Cut Off with $1 in Mother's Will.

Elizabeth Stock, daughter of Mrs. Ottilie Stock, who died June 18, yesterday filed a caveat asking that her mother's will be set aside and its mandates nullified.

Miss Stock says that her mother was made incapable of executing a valid contract, and that undue influence was brought to bear on her.

In her will Mrs. Stock left the daughter $1, with the proviso that if the bank account would not stand such a drain the daughter was to have two kitchen chairs, two pails, one broom, and two wash basins.

The testatrix, after requesting the chloroforming of her parrot, asked that all her family pictures and letters be interred with her. Her remaining estate was left for a monument to mark her resting place.

PRISONERS ABIDE BY PEACE COMPACT

Fifty Taken Unhanded to New Jail Site.

The record of taking fifty prisoners to a jail forty miles away without the use of a single pair of handcuffs and without having the slightest trouble during the process belongs to W. H. Whitaker, the new superintendent in charge of the work of building the jail and workhouse at Occoquan, Va.

Mr. Whitaker gave the men a short talk before leaving for the train, promising them good treatment if they gave him fair play. He informed them that all who had a good record from this on will not have to wear convict stripes, but would be clothed in dark blue.

CORNWELL'S WIDOW NAMED.

H. Bradley Davidson Will Also Adjust $210,000 Estate.

Letters of administration on the estate of Samuel G. Cornwell, who died July 3, and whose estate is valued at $210,000, were granted to his widow, Sarah E. Cornwell, and the deceased's friend, H. Bradley Davidson, by Justice Stafford yesterday.

Mr. Cornwell left no will, and the bond of the administrators was fixed at $250,000.

There are three sons—George G. Harry K., and Douglas V. Cornwell. According to Mrs. Cornwell's petition for letters of administration, Mr. Cornwell owned three lots in square 172, valued at $5,000. His grocery business is estimated at $50,000; household furniture, $1,000; stock and bond investments, $50,000; and bank balance, $100,000.

The administrators were authorized by the court to continue the business and to complete certain building contracts in which the deceased was interested.

SUMMER REVIVALS TO BEGIN.

Gospel Mission Services Will Be Held in Open Air.

Midsummer evangelistic services will begin to-morrow evening under the auspices of the Gospel Mission, 1230 Pennsylvania avenue, for which Rev. James M. Belt and Rev. Thomas B. Buckalew have been engaged.

Evangelist Belt has just returned from a tour through New England, and Evangelist Buckalew, who is a singer as well as speaker, is as well known as Mr. Belt.

Open-air services will be held from 7:30 to 9:30 p. m. on the lawn at Fourteenth street and Ohio avenue northwest and in the hall on Pennsylvania avenue from 8:30 to 9:30.

The Ideal Summer Recreation is motoring in TTCO touring cars. Cooling, healthful. $3 and $4 hour. Phone N. 1212.

BURIAL OF JAMES O. CARTER.

Funeral Services to Be Held To-day from B Street Home.

The funeral of James O. Carter, who was stricken with heart failure at noon Saturday, will be held this afternoon from his late home, 1214 B street southwest. He was an old resident of Washington.

He was born near Dumfries, Va., and came to this city while a very young boy, clerking for his father, who was in the general store business at the foot of Thirteenth street southwest.

Young Carter remained with his father for several years, later establishing for himself a wholesale wood and tie business. Some years ago he established the firm of Carter & Clarke, L. A. Clarke being the junior member.

The firm was dissolved last year, Mr. Carter retiring and establishing a new firm under the name of James O. Carter Company. Mr. Carter was a member of the Odd Fellows, and had been a director of the Bank of Washington for a number of years. He is survived by four sons, J. Harry Carter, Charles M. Carter, Thomas H. Carter, and Oscar M. Carter, and five daughters, Mrs. Lottie Bradford, Mrs. Sallie Martin, Mrs. Frances E. Reese, Mrs. May Keene, and Miss Agnes Carter.

DEATH CALLS AGED PRINTER.

Jacob Covert Caused Nomination of Benjamin Harrison.

Jacob Covert, an old member of the Columbia Typographical Union, is dead at his residence, 1100 D street northeast. Mr. Covert was formerly a member of the "Big Six" organization, his influence being chiefly responsible for the nomination for the Presidency of Benjamin Harrison.

His wife and four children survive him, Mrs. G. L. Austin, Mrs. C. P. Beard, C. G. Covert, and W. H. Covert.

The funeral will be held under auspices of Phil Sheridan Post, G. A. R., of which he was a member, and interment will be in Arlington Cemetery.

Before Mr. Covert came to Washington to reside he was at one time connected with the Evansville, Ind., Tribune, where he took an active part in politics. He was a member of the Indiana State legislature several years ago. He was also a candidate for the United States Senate, but was defeated.

CLERKS ENJOY OUTING.

Proceeds of River Excursion to Be Used for Government Employees.

Several hundred clerks and their families enjoyed the eleventh annual outing of the local branch of the Retail Clerks' International Association last night on the steamer St. Johns.

Music was furnished aboard the vessel, and a trip of several hours put all in good spirits.

In order to support any movement opposed to an increase in the hours of government clerks, it was agreed that the proceeds of the excursion be used for that purpose.
